About Me

Kolby Skidmore is a cancer survivor who roams the desert of Arizona searching for that perfect picture. An Arizona native and an ASU design graduate, Kolby brings innovation and creativity into her photography that truly defys traditional wedding photographs.

A believer in love and happily ever after, Kolby offers a personal understanding of the needs and wants of all couples. She aims to please, and loves to wow. Weddings are monumental gatherings of family and friends alike. Trust no one else to capture both the joy and intimacy of your special day.

Kolby is most known for her work with the pin-up beauties of the high desert. Her work can be seen in Inked Magazine, The Pin Up Bible, and Delicious Dolls Magazine. Kolby's earned a finalist mention in the Denice Dixon photo contest, and has work featured on viewbug.com.

You are Enough

Kolby Skidmore is an accomplished, conceptual artist, who specializes in weddings, pin up, family, and animal photography. Stricken by cancer several years ago, she chose as her theme, Insecurity, for this exhibition. On her quest to slay the cancer beast, she experienced, first hand, the uncertainty and the fragility of life at 24-years of age.

Her photos in this series speak to viewers of the angst, desperation, and pain of too many bills, feelings of inadequacy, and her personal search for the right prescription to cure her disease.

At Kolby Skidmore Photography, I hold an incredible passion for life, love, and documenting the emotional moments that add meaning to our lives. My approach to photography is natural and relationship-oriented; I love to get to know my clients long before putting them in front of the lens. My focus is on you. My goals are to create a special vision together with you, and immortalize the bonds, emotions, and moments that can't be re-lived or replaced. Beautiful photographs are emotional moments frozen in time for you to remember and revisit with family, friends, or a quiet moment alone - and I strive to create images that will be cherished for generations.

A romantic photograph of a couple embracing and kissing on the lips. The scene is set outdoors at sunset, with the sun low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow. The couple is in profile, facing each other. The woman has long, wavy hair and is wearing a light-colored top. The man is wearing a dark-colored shirt. The background is a blurred landscape with some greenery and a body of water in the distance.
